LETTER

Attn: INITIAL PATENT EXAMINATION DIVISION

To The Commissioner of Patents
and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

In response to the Notice of Incomplete Nonprovisional Application filed under 37 CFR 1.53(b), mailed March 3, 2001, our copy of the Application and the Patent and Trademark Office Stamped Receipt card for such Application show receipt of such papers. Your Notice dated March 3, 2001, wherein it was indicated that the Application does not include at least one Claim, was in error.

Normally, when an Patent Application is filed as a Continuation, such as a Continuation of PCT/NL00/00313, as was done in this case, a Preliminary Amendment, and the original executed Application (which appears to be the same as parent PCT/NL00/00313) are filed at the same time with other papers. The Preliminary Amendment cancels a number of claims. In this particular case the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office was therefore instructed to "Cancel all claims except Claim 1 without prejudice." Therefore, according to our files, our invariable practice, and U.S. Patent Office stamped receipt cards, there is always at least one independent Claim in the original Application and this was so in the Continuation of International Application PCT/NL00/00313, filed January 19, 2001.

We are attaching hereto a copy of Page 7 of original International Application No. PCT/NL00/00313 wherein Claim 1 is the first claim listed at beginning of the page. Also enclosed are the first and second pages of the Preliminary Amendment indicating that all claims are to be cancelled except Claim 1 without prejudice. Further, a copy of our stamped receipt card is enclosed.

In discussing the above data with the personnel in Customer Service Center, Initial Patent Examination Division, we understand that no fee is involved at this time. A copy of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office Letter is also attached. Please advise if this is correct.

We will also appreciate receiving clarification of this matter and advice that the "NOTICE OF INCOMPLETE NONPROVISIONAL APPLICATION" has been withdrawn and that a Filing Receipt will be forthcoming, or that we otherwise be advised in the premises.

Respectfully submitted,
